

January 5, 1956

Mrs. Ernest Badten

The following news clipping of the death of Mrs. Ernest Badten, was taken from The Snoqualmie Valley Record, Snoqualmie, Wash. The Badtens were long residents of this vicinity, having farmed 10 miles southwest of this city in the twenties before leaving for the west coast:

"Mrs. Ernest Badten succumbed on Sunday, Dec. 18, to a lengthy illness. She had been a patient at Nelems Memorial hospital for several months, but had been home for several weeks preceding her death.

"Mabel Dahl was born at Reeder, N. D., on Jan 2, 1905, and grew to womanhood there. She was married to Ernest Badten in 1923. The family moved to Washington in the 30's. The family home was near Waterville for a number of years, later at Withrow. The Badtens moved to North Bend in 1952, near Ellisville.

"Survivors include her husband, Ernest; two sons, Vernon, Seattle, and Allan, Withrow; two daughters, Mrs. Lois Frederick, Coulee City, and Mrs. Vera Hanson, Wenatchee, and three grandchildren. Also three sisters, Mrs. Rosella Mackey, Dickinson, N. D., Mrs. Alice Densmore, Seattle and Mrs. Agnes Nelson, Renton; one brother Erling, Seattle.

"Funeral services were conducted on Thursday afternoon at the Federated church in Waterville. Burial was in the cemetery there, where her parents, the Anton Dahls are interred."